

Work From Home Policy

Company: Example Technologies Pvt. Ltd.

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

1. Overview & Work Allowance

This policy outlines the guidelines and expectations for employees working remotely or from home. Employees are allowed a maximum of 3 Work from Home (WFH) days per calendar week. Any additional remote work days require explicit written approval from department heads.

2. Hybrid Schedule & Minimum Office Hours

For employees operating under a hybrid working model, a minimum of 20 hours per week must be completed physically inside the primary office location. The remaining scheduled hours may be completed remotely during core operational hours.

3. Working Hours & Availability

Employees operating under WFH are expected to maintain standard business hours. Employees must remain accessible via official communication channels (e.g., Slack, Email, Microsoft Teams) during core working hours and participate in scheduled team meetings.

4. Infrastructure & Security

Employees are responsible for ensuring a stable internet connection and a secure, quiet workspace. All work must be performed using company-approved devices and software. Accessing confidential company data from unsecured public Wi-Fi networks is strictly prohibited without a VPN connection.

5. Leave & Absence during WFH

Work from Home is not a substitute for leave. If an employee is unwell or unable to perform their duties while working remotely, they must apply for Sick Leave or Casual Leave through the company's approved leave-management process.

6. Request & Approval Process

Employees must submit a remote work request to their reporting manager at least 24 hours in advance, except in unforeseen emergencies. Approval is granted at the discretion of the management based on business requirements, project deliverables, and team coverage.

7. Equipment & Reimbursements

The company provides necessary hardware such as laptops and peripherals. Any additional home-office setup or internet expenses will be reimbursed in accordance with the company's expense reimbursement policy.

8. Example

If an employee works remotely for 3 days in a week (e.g., Wednesday to Friday), they must ensure that their remaining 2 office days account for at least 20 hours spent on-site to fulfill the hybrid attendance requirement.
